

Who's Who at My Church

My church is called

The pastor (shepherd) of our Church is

He oversees all the things that happen at St. James. He leads us at Mass, Reconciliation, baptisms, weddings, and funerals. He is on many committees and helps set the direction of the parish.

He is in contact with Bishop Allan Vigneron at the Archdiocesan office in Detroit.

Our associate pastor is

He also leads mass, hears confessions, and celebrates baptisms, weddings, funerals, and helps as needed.

We currently have three deacons. They are volunteers and help with Mass, Baptisms, funerals, visiting the sick, and much more!

Our Deacons names are

There are many more leaders at our church that point the way to Jesus. Use the bulletin to find their names! If u=you don't have a bulletin

I am the Director of Religious Education. I plan the lessons, sometimes teach them and oversee all Religious ed for children and adults.

My name is _____

I am the head of Christian Service. I organize the Food Pantry, the Giving Tree, and other programs that help the needy.

My name is _____

I am the parish Secretary. I sit at the desk in the main office, taking phone calls, welcoming people to our church, keeping the calendar for the many activities that happen here.

My name is _____

I am the music director at St. James.

You see me sitting at the organ at 5:00, 8:00 and 9:30 masses.

My name is _____

You can be a leader at St. James too!

Write three things children do to help at St.James.
